FROM CDCT’S PRESIDENT:

Dressage: An Art Based on Continual Self-Evaluation

Jane-Marie Law

In 1967, a dressage school opened in my small town of Kalispell, Montana. Larson’s School of Dressage was founded by Captain Roy J. Larson, a former cavalry officer who, during the rebuilding of Germany in the post war era, had been stationed in Germany to work with former military officers involved with horsemanship. Larson built a proper ménage with barns and an indoor viewing room and outside schooling arenas and had a huge horse van with the school’s name on it and several stallions trained through all the movements of haute écôle. The school, funded by his patron Curt Maxey, was one of the first to import Andalusian stallions into the United States when exports from Spain of these horses were allowed. Dressage, which no one could pronounce, became a fascination of old horse people in the area. I rode my Palomino Pinto Agate for lessons there, and later had “nicer” (though never kinder) horses, schooled properly in dressage, including a large Saddlebred named Bourbon Prince who was trained through haute écôle (but taught me the basics). The school hosted local exhibitions and even had pillars at X. Once a season, we had “inspections,” events where Captain Larson would invite a colleague (or preside himself) to assess the progress of our training. We had to memorize tests, and present them to an outside observer. There were no ribbons, no placings, and no scores, but detailed comments about areas we needed work and where we were successful, followed by a lesson. We had to shine our boots, clean our horses and tack, dress neatly and formally, and present ourselves and our horses for in-hand and then under saddle inspection and instruction.

Alas, youth is wasted on the young. At the time, I found the whole “dressage system” less exciting than the horse shows my friends went to, where they could ride endless rail classes and come home with ribbons and trophies. Now, however, I look back on that time with both nostalgia and respect, but also a strong sense that there was wisdom in this system worth saving.

I hear often from people in our club that they love dressage but do not want to compete. Some of us love competitions for varied reasons, but some of us do not. I would like to suggest that we have an untapped reservoir of talented people who need a stronger voice for their passions of dressage.

The venue we hope to promote more strongly is our clinic program. Clinics are a great way to go places with your horse, interact with outside experts, and have a chance to form the kinds of special bond with our horses and other people that come with “getting off the farm.”

We encourage you to help us in our efforts to enhance our clinic system. We will be adding incentives and awards for people who participate in clinics (even as auditors). We will also be asking of all our clinicians that their training continue to not just be focused on pointing us toward better competitions, but foundationally toward the classical principles, and to make this abundantly explicit. We want people who may never want to compete to feel that attending clinics is their chance to get out with their horse and make a day or a weekend of it. We want these people to feel that this is a highly respected endeavor, to be cherished and rewarded.

Roy Larson was a tough taskmaster. He had at times a short temper and could be too hard on lazy horses. But he did open my eyes to an art form based on continual assessment and the integrity of repeatedly asking ourselves how we can to become better at this endless art of horsemanship. For this, I am grateful.

Balance in Motion Clinic

with Beth Beukema

August 12, 2017
John T. Oxley Equestrian Center
Cornell University
Ithaca, New York

Ms. Beukema is a large “R” USDF Certified Judge and Clinician. The “Balance in Motion” clinic will be offered the day before our Casual Show at Oxley, both riders and non riders can participate.

Clinic Description:
Session one held the morning of the first clinic day (1- 1 ½ hour session). This session introduces the basic philosophy and theory of the Balance in Motion program. All riding participants strongly urged to attend. Auditors are encouraged to participate fully in this interactive warm-up exercise program. Everyone should bring yoga mat or blanket and dress comfortably. (Non riders cost: $20 for non-members of CDCT.)
The riding portion involves both mounted and mat exercises interspersed. Riders warm horses up and then after analysis dismount and work on 1-2 exercises and then remount and feel the difference in their bodies and their horse’s way of going. This is repeated several times. Each rider will need to have someone to hold their horse while they are on the mats.

Cost is: $90 member, $95 non member of CDCT.
Stabling is limited on a first come, first serve- $10/day, $15 overnight.
Approved helmets for riders, current Coggins, Rabies and EHV vaccines are required for horses. Please use the entry form included in this newsletter.

Prix Caprilli Test I

The Prix Caprilli test provides an opportunity for the horse and rider to demonstrate elementary skills in dressage and jumping. It is understood that in the working gaits, a jumping horse is not expected to be as on the bit (round) as a competing dressage horse. The horse must softly accept the bit and may show more roundness in the parts of the test separate from the jumps. Trot work to be done posting. Transitions into and out of the halt may be through the walk. Test may be called. Refusals will be penalized as an error of course. Knockdowns will be penalized at the judge’s discretion. In the case of a knocked down rail being in the way, the judge will ring the bell for the rider to stop without penalty. After the jump is replaced, the bell will be rung again telling the rider to continue from where they stopped. Errors: 1st – 2 points, 2nd – 5 points, 3rd – elimination. 3 refusals at one jump – elimination.

Maximum Possible Points: 150

THE QUEEN AWARD

The Queen Award is a perpetual award in honor of Adel Arikka to be given every year to the highest scoring mare at at CDCT’s Recognized show. In 2017, it was awarded to Li’czabeth and Bettina Wagner. See Arrika’s biography on the following pages.

MEMBER BIO: DONNA YOUNG

Donna grew up in Ithaca, NY and spent her high school years leasing a grey mare at the Cornell Polo barn. The mare, Grey Lady, eventually became hers, and went on to UNH for college. Donna chose UNH when doing a campus visit she saw her first horse trial being run, and decided that was what she wanted to do. Four years of 3 lessons a week, completing the Instructor Certification program and eventing at Novice and Training levels was like a dream come true. After college, she began her professional career, coming to Binghamton NY and Crooked Creek Farm in 1978. Organizing the STPC horse trials and teaching all ages, and personally eventing through the years up to 3 Day Preliminary level. Along the way, she started competing in dressage competitions on clients' horses, successfully getting to FEI. When the STPC stopped doing the horse trials, Donna and her students put on USDF recognized dressage competitions for 5 years at the same Crooked Creek Farm.

When she decided to switch her focus to dressage, she purchased a mare named Adel Alicia and after that found 5 siblings for other clients, as she was so impressed with the Trakehner line of "ITH", by Ibiskus, imported by Henry Shurink of Doornhof Farm. Alicia had a successful career up through Grand Prix, but had a tragic accident in turn out and had to be put down. In the meantime, Donna bought her full sister, Adel Arikka, who competed successfully thru Grand Prix, earning her Pg, and the Gold Freestyle Bar, Donna also competed a half sibling mare, Adel Adrianne thru Grand Prix and a half sibling gelding Anflug, to USDF Second Level Horse of the Year before selling him. Donna has competed 6 Trakehner horses in the ATA Futurity over the years, ending in the top 6 with all of them.

In the late 1980's the musical freestyles were just starting and with high tech recording, editing and splicing on a boom box, Donna was USDF 4th Level Musical Freestyle Horse of the Year on a Danish Warm-blood belonging to a client. After that she designed 2 FEI I-1 freestyles and 4 Grand Prix freestyles for her 3 grey Trakehner sisters, earning the Freestyle Gold Bar award.

Donna retired from competition in 2011, but continues to train and teach her dedicated students for the joy of the process.
When I turned 40, I decided to turn my riding career to solely Dressage and sold my homebred event horse. At the time, I had my Trakehner mare, Adel Alicia, competing at the Intermediare I level, so I called her breeder to see what she had currently for sale. I was told they had a full sister to Alicia, but she was grey......as that was my favorite color, I immediately set it up to go see her. This was in March, and their farm set up was 24/7 turnout, on a mountain top in upstate NY. Needless to say, she was very hairy, especially her huge ears, so my immediate response was "Oh good, she's ugly so I don't have to buy her"......well, when we turned her loose in the outdoor ring to see her move and one of my friends that I took with me to video, said "If you don't buy her, I will!" So, that's how we came together as a team, in 1995 when she was coming 4 years old. My friends and I discussed what her name should be on the ride home. Because of the Trakehner name requirements, it had to start with Adel, and then an A-name after because of the dam, Adel Andante. (another mare I had through Nancy Pille, was Adel Adrianne as she was out of the same dam). I decided, to honor my event horse that I sold (Erik), and made up the name Arikka, to add to the Adel.

She was barely halter broken and very reactive. I was unloaded 3 times when I decided to take her to an indoor for the safety of walls and a pile of shavings in one corner to use to help stop her. After using that shavings pile more than a few times, a light bulb went off in her head and she happily started her career as a real Dressage horse instead of a rodeo ride.

In her first competitive year, she was third in the ATA Futurity, a competition for 5 year old Trakehners all over the US, the ranking based on their median score at Training Level. Her score was a 71.4%. The same year I was competing Alicia at Grand Prix. The next year we skipped from 1st to 2nd Level, and the next year 3rd to 4th with many Championship ribbons from Western NY, to Dressage at Saratoga, to GMHA in Vermont and Westchester/Fairfield in Connecticut and Regional Finals in Ellenville, NY and earning her Performance Bronze medal (Pb).
In 2000 she was Co-Reserve Champion in the ATA at Prix St. George and earned her Performance Silver (Ps). In 2002, preparing to compete at I-1 she sustained an injury which earned her a year off, so I bred her and in 2003 she had a filly, Adel Anneka. In 2004 she went back into the competition ring at I-1, and letting me get to ride at Dressage at Devon, my dream. We started to school for the Grand Prix until the injury was re-aggravated and she was stall bound for 3 months in the summer of 2005. Not knowing if she would ever be sound again, I took another long 3 months to slowly rehab her and in 2006 she came back out, but this time at Grand Prix, and earned her Performance Gold (Pg) and the USDF Gold Medal (10 scores over 60% at Grand Prix) and helped me get my USDF Gold Freestyle Bar award, that I had started with Alicia.

I competed her for 3 years at Grand Prix, until she developed Cushings disease and I retired her from the GP competition ring. Not one to want to hang out as a lawn ornament, I started to let people take lessons on her so they could feel how things could be correct and not correct. She was the epitome of the dream schoolmaster for so many people. I leased her to my good friend and student, Maribeth Absi, for 2 years and they went from 3rd level to Prix St. George, earning MB her USDF Bronze and Silver medals. After a year off, due to the old injury, Kathi Chipman leased her for a summer and successfully competed her at second and third levels, but also learning tempi changes and piaffe and passage! Priceless! (Kathi wrote a wonderful article after that summer, about the experience of riding schoolmaster sisters, which were Arikka and Adel Adrianne)

The winter of 2013-14 she was kept exercised and fuzzed over, as she had earned the title of "Queen", but her health suddenly deteriorated in May 2014 when she came down with a very aggressive form of cancer, and she crossed the Rainbow Bridge on May 16th. She is buried overlooking her dressage ring at my farm, with an apple tree, surrounded by butterfly bushes noting her final resting place.

That June, my dear friends and students, honored me with "The Queen" award at the CDCT annual Dressage weekend. It is a perpetual award to be given every year, to the highest scoring mare at the show. I was pleased to present it to Beth Harris on Hideaway's East Cork in 2014, and Bettina Wagner on Liz'cabeth in 2015 and 2017.

I was the luckiest person to have been "owned" by this mare for 20 years and I miss her every day.
FELDENKRAIS FOR HORSES
by Carol Morris, Co-Recording Secretary

The first time that Dave Thind saw Magoo was a few weeks after I had bought him in December 2014. Magoo had no clue what aids were, and had trouble staying on the rail and not stumbling over his own huge feet. He was going to be my backyard trail horse, and was at Kathy Thode’s Brookside farm for a few basic training lessons. There was a spot open in a clinic with Dave, so I grabbed it. We embarrassed ourselves thoroughly.

Fast forward a few years: after losing my Andalusian cross who was schooling Third Level, Magoo is stepping up to the plate to learn how to use his body and morph into a dressage horse. His “serious” training began in September 2016. Since then, we have been to two schooling shows, earning respectable scores at Training Level.

Happily, we were able to have Dave come back for a clinic at Kathy’s. Dave holds a “Trainer A” license from the German Equestrian Federation and is a Feldenkrais practitioner, and uses these methods on people and horses. According to Wikipedia, “In a session, a Feldenkrais practitioner directs attention to habitual movement patterns which are thought to be inefficient or strained, and attempts to teach new patterns using gentle, slow, repeated movements.”.

On the first day of the clinic, Dave used some of these methods to discover where Magoo was tight – his ribcage was the biggest problem. We worked on techniques for loosening his ribcage and pelvis, which helped Magoo to come round and carry himself at the halt, walk, and trot.

On the second day I asked Dave to ride Magoo for a bit. The first challenge was finding stirrup leathers long enough but Kathy graciously loaned me hers. As Dave settled into the saddle, he burst out with “My goodness he is BIG!” That has been a constant struggle for me – getting my short legs around his huge barrel. When I use my jumping saddle on him I need a 56” girth.

We worked on getting Magoo to listen better to my inside leg, especially going to the right. Dave reminded me that I can’t let him cheat – I have to be insistent with every aid, and he needs to give me the correct response every time. Basically, Magoo is now a dressage horse, and I need to ride him as a dressage horse.

I’m very proud and happy of the way this big pinto has come along. He is a sweet boy, and I think he knows he has found a soft landing after some difficult early years. The journey will continue.
REGION 8 NEWS

This year Region 8 sent two full teams to the NAJYRC and they did well. It is a young team; where many first timers went to this event, and they did well. More importantly, they all had fun despite the heat!!! Jane Karol, Chef d’ Equipe, and Jen Dillon, Regional Coordinator and Chef d’ Equipe, did the most amazing job. A simple thank you is not enough. They were first timers also and I cannot wait to see how they handle it all next year!

Remember our qualifying for regional championships ends on August 28, 2017. There are many shows you can still get those two scores from, and to get your entry into the NEDA Fall Festival. I will remind you again the US Dressage Finals open to the Open and Adult Amateur Champion and Reserve Champion from the Regional Championships, and also to riders who reach a certain score (information on the USDF Website). These riders will be invited to Lexington, KY to compete head to head with the other regional champions. I am hoping for a big showing from Region 8 again. IMPORTANT note, please remember you will have to declare that you are willing to go to the ‘finals’ if invited. This declaration must be done by day before our Regional Championships. The USDF website will have more information.

I would like to welcome the newly elected USDF PM Delegates. They are Sue McKeown, Cynthia Wylie, Regina Cristo, Kathy Hickerson, Karin Swanfeldt, Stan Horton, Fie Anderson, Kate O’Connor, Diane Holston, and Linda Mendenhall. Some are returning as delegates and others are new. I look forward to working with you this next year as it will be a big one for Region 8! I also want to thank those who decided to step down for all your work you have given Region 8.

Remember we will hold our next regional meeting on October 8, 2017, at noon, at the Publick House in Sturbridge, MA. We do like meeting face to face and I hope you can spare the time to make it. However, we have been given the opportunity to use the NEDA conference hub and number for those of you too far so that you can call in. So no excuses! But you will miss the great food at Publick House and the great company!

See you on the Centerline…
Debra Reinhardt
USDF Region 8 Director

EQUINE SPORTS MEDICINE: performance enhancement through neurologic re-integration

Dr. Karen Gellman has practiced equine chiropractic and acupuncture for over 20 years, has an advanced degree in equine locomotion biomechanics, is an internationally recognized equine researcher and a featured speaker on posture and locomotion all over Europe and North America. She can help you and your horse become a more functional, integrated team.

Dr. Gellman is the only full service holistic veterinarian between Albany and Buffalo, offering acupuncture, chiropractic, homotoxicology, medical ozone, Chinese herbal formulas and nutraceuticals for horses and for companion animals. She specializes in Postural Rehabilitation, an integrative treatment that resets the postural control system, restoring neutral stance for healing, and relieving physical and emotional stress. PR helps your horse stretch forward, move more freely and connect more effectively with the rider. This modality is highly effective for long term injury rehabilitation, horses that have been rescued from neglect or abusive situations, and those who are sound, but not quite right, not as good as you think they could be.

Common problems helped by Dr. Gellman include:

- Neck or back pain
- Hind end pain
- Resistance to training
- Poor performance
- Uneven gait
- Chronic or recurrent lameness
- Slow injury healing
- Uneven foot size
- Poor foot quality
- Irritability/Anxiety

Springfield Equine Retirement Farm

At Springfield Farm, we cherish a horse’s individuality and appreciate his history. Each is cared for and loved as one of our own. Springfield Farm is a sixty-five acre farm located in the beautiful Finger Lakes Region of New York and just minutes from downtown Ithaca and Cornell University’s Large Animal Hospital. Our care is based on the premise that each animal deserves the best quality of life, including one-on-one attention and focus on individual dietary, physical and emotional needs. Springfield Farm horses enjoy the maximum turnout that weather allows and individual stalls for those days that aren’t so nice.

Boarding fees include feed, blanketing and plenty of individual attention. Veterinary and farrier services are billed to the owner at cost. As the owners of Springfield Farm, we live onsite and provide direct, personal care for all horses. The size of our operation is small by design. Our combined experience and education will give you complete confidence in your decision to retire your horse at Springfield Farm. Please feel free to contact Lori Elrod at 607-351-1499 or lori.elrod@gmail.com for additional information, request photos or arrange a visit. Visit us online at www.sfetech.net/equineretirement
