

COLLECTED NOTES

JULY 2017

FROM CDCT'S PRESIDENT:

Summer's greetings to everyone. It looks like we are in for more rainy weather in the month ahead, I for one have been grateful for the chances summer offers to play with my horse and not feel like the wind hurts my face. Each season has its blessings, I guess.

Our June show was a great success. This year marks the changing of the guard in this club tradition. Donna Young, who has run this show caringly and smoothly year after year, is hanging up her show manager spurs. We cannot express enough how grateful to her we are for her tireless efforts in making a recognized show possible for all of us. Donna, you leave very big boots to fill. We would also like to note Connie O'Hearn who is transitioning out of her role as volunteer coordinator. This job, soon to be an Olympic sport I think, is one she does with great tact and attention to people. Again, there are no words adequate to express our gratitude. A number of other people deserve our thanks, and we hope you will all join us for our fall awards event where all volunteers will be properly celebrated. Watch this space for more information on our fall celebration extravaganza. Warning: It will be great fun and you won't want to miss it.

Now, to another matter. The newsletter. This spring we conducted a random and highly unscientific poll of the social media, on-line and hard copy reading habits of our membership and concluded this: (exciting conclusion on page 2!)

No conclusions can be drawn from this highly diverse group of people. One thing was clear, however: Everybody loves the newsletter, regardless of how or where or in what form they read it. To this end, we want to make this newsletter a really significant literary accomplishment. We would like to invite you, our gentle members, to submit short articles to us (ranging in word count from 150-250 words, that is to say less than a page double spaced) on the following themes: 1) Historical reflections on riding over the years. (This is a chance for us old fogies to hold court on the past.) 2) Reflections from young people on their riding, their horses and their insights (and only young people, which is to say, those under the age of 25, are allowed to brag.) 3) Any “why I love my horse” stories regardless of age of writer, and 4) Hints or recipes or life hacks that make your riding life better. Recipes, time saving tricks, patterns for Superwoman capes that actually deliver the goods, etc.) 5) Anything else horse related that you think our members would want to read about. Please send whatever you have to Karen Steffy, wonderpony92@gmail.com and look for it in an upcoming newsletter!

So, get thinking. Get reflecting. Get writing.

Enjoy the fireflies and the moons and the warm days.

Warmest regards,

Jane-Marie Law
Club President

MEMBER BIO: BETTINA WAGNER

So, Karen asked me for my ‘rider bio’. Here it is in a nutshell. I started to ride in Germany when I was 12 and was mostly riding sour ponies that wouldn’t jump and wouldn’t go on the bit in eventing classes. It was still a lot of fun although I think I was a lousy pony rider. One of my pony instructors promised me that I would never be able to ride a horse with my seat. Shortly afterwards I switch to riding horses and became a somewhat acceptable rider in small dressage and jumping classes on different horses owned by various people. When I was about 19, I was starting to ride horses for two owners. One was a passionate eventing fan. I rode one horse for him that made it to the German National Eventing Championships for young riders when I was 21. At the same time and for about 12 years, I was riding, eventing, jumping and dressage horses for another person who was a similarly passionate Trakehner fan and would not buy another breed. In Germany, Trakehners are generally seen as a little freaky, not jumping well, hot-blooded, difficult to ride. Nevertheless, there are exceptions and many ended up in our small barn. I was riding 4-5 horses a day at that time, started them young (not yet ridden) and brought them all the way up to medium class jumping (1.40m), eventing (advanced), and also dressage (Inter I). At the same time, I did my DVM and dissertation in Germany. In 2002, I came to Cornell and Ithaca and stopped riding for a few years until we adopted Maverick at the age of two from one of the Cornell barns in 2007. Shortly afterwards, I got myself in shape again by riding one of my friend Amy’s young horses for a while and then Maverick. He turned out to be quite a Thoroughbred, not easy to handle for Jana when she was younger. And this was when I got into the pony business again and we bought our pony Peaches for Jana. Peachy also developed into a hot little thing. So, Jana and I decided to buy a horse together and that was Betty who came to us about two years ago as a hunter/jumper and is now a dressage/hunter/jumper. Nevertheless, Jana and I figured that we will always buy horses together in the future. This seems to work best.

On a side note, I really like to ride a very fast tölt, which is a four-beaded, very comfortably to sit gait, on a good Icelandic horse and think I will do this more and more as I get older.

Balance in Motion Clinic

with Beth Beukema

John T. Oxley Equestrian Center
Cornell University
Ithaca, New York

Ms. Beukema is a large “R” USDF Certified Judge and Clinician. The “Balance in Motion” clinic will be offered the day before our Casual Show at Oxley, both riders and non riders can participate.

Clinic Description:

Session one held the morning of the first clinic day (1- 1 ½ hour session). This session introduces the basic philosophy and theory of the Balance in Motion program. All riding participants strongly urged to attend. Auditors are encouraged to participate fully in this interactive warm-up exercise program. Everyone should bring yoga mat or blanket and dress comfortably. (Non riders cost: $20 for non-members of CDCT.)

The riding portion involves both mounted and mat exercises interspersed. Riders warm horses up and then after analysis dismount and work on 1-2 exercises and then remount and feel the difference in their bodies and their horse’s way of going. This is repeated several times. Each rider will need to have someone to hold their horse while they are on the mats.

Cost is : $90 member, $95 non member of CDCT.

Stabling is limited on a first come, first serve- $10/day, $15 overnight.

Approved helmets for riders, current Coggins, Rabies and EHV vaccines are required for horses. Please use the entry form included in this newsletter.

VOLUNTEERING AT THE KENTUCKY THREE DAY EVENT

by Tina Matejka

The Kentucky Three-Day Event, held at the Kentucky Horse Park on the outskirts of Lexington, has been the only CCI4* event in the United States, with horse and rider competing over the course of four days (two Dressage days) in Dressage, Cross Country and Stadium Jumping. The 2018 event runs from April 26-April 29 and Tickets go on sale at 9am on November 1, 2017.

I visited the event for a few years and promised myself that when I retired I was going to somehow volunteer to be on the inside of this wonderful gathering of horses, riders, support crew, and fans from all over the world. I go for 6 days and I volunteer at the official 3 day shop of merchandise and as a crossing guard and crowd control on the Cross Country day. There are many opportunities for those interested in Rolex Stadium ushers where you get to see all the stadium events, working to set up the X-C course, parking, security, food service and even scribes, farriers, etc. To see the extensive list, visit www.kentuckythreedayevent.com , then Competition, then Volunteer Information. Click on any title to see the job description and click to fill out a volunteer form. (It will direct you to set up an account). If you don't hear from anyone by the end of January, I found it helpful to call the main office and they will forward you to someone who may be able to pass on your contact info to a group they know needs help. For your volunteering different groups have different perks. At the merchandise shop I get an official cap and t-shirt that they don't sell to the general public and previews of all the new stuff I want to buy before it's gone! You also get a meal ticket, parking pass for special parking and an entrance pass. Working as a crossing guard/crowd control you get the same plus a pin, a cup, and a lanyard. There's plenty of great food, shopping and amazing equine performances!

I usually volunteer one shift per day and the other half of the day I've done Barn Tours, Keeneland Track races, watched half days of Dressage, done the Rolex Kentucky 5K, shopped the HUGE Trade Fairs, toured the Horse Park, watched several of the exhibitions of games and breeds the Park sponsors during the event as well, watched all the stadium jumping. It is a wonderful saturating experience with great horses and great people. I have made several friends that look forward to seeing every year when I return!

Board Meeting June 10, 2017

Whitney Point, NY

Present: Lisa Cooper, Ginny Grove, Dinah Guarino, Jane Marie Law, Tina Matejka, Carol Morris, Kathy Thode, Bettina Wagner, Jana Wagner, Donna Young.

The Good of the Order: Jane Marie: Many thanks to Donna Young for all her hard work managing our shows over the decades. This was her last year as manager, and it will be hard to fill her shoes. Gratitude also to all the volunteers who once again made the show weekend such a success. Thanks to all who contributed time, financial resources, and/or energy.

Treasurer's Report: Ginny: The Club is quite solvent. The Shows made a small profit of about $327. Although we only ran one ring, Sponsorship was up compared to last year. Thanks to all who helped with Sponsorship and/or who donated to the Club.

Approval of Minutes: Dinah moved, Bettina second; passed.

Guest: Carin Mei of Voltra Farms presented information on upcoming events at her farm in Verona, NY.

October 14-15 Tina Cristiani Veder, founder of the Baroque Equestrian Games Institute, will present a Classical Horsemanship Clinic and Symposium. Symposium topics on Saturday include the history of Classical Horsemanship, principles of classical training, and schooling patterns for novice horses. This will include lectures and demonstration rides. Clinic lessons will be scheduled on Sunday with auditing available. Complete information is at <http://www.voltrafarm.com/coming-2017/ev-detail/the-history-of-classical-horsemanship-saturday-october-14-2017>. Please note that CDCT members are also eligible for the club discounts.

November 19, 2017: Improve your feel and timing of aids; a seminar with Michelle LaBarre. <http://www.voltrafarm.com/coming-2017/ev-detail/improve-your-feel-and-timing-of-aids-november-19-2017>

Voltra Farms has been a generous sponsor of CDCT. These should be interesting and informative sessions, but space is limited so early registration is recommended.

Old Business:

June Shows: we reviewed the expenses associated with the shows. If you are interested in complete details, please contact Ginny Grove.

We need to find a new Manager and Secretary. Jana Wagner volunteered to serve as Secretary. Thank you Jana for stepping up!

We need to decide on a show format for 2018. A poll will be sent out to the CDCT membership and recent competitors. There are several issues to consider:

- we are only a week away from the Houghton show, which draws heavily on the same pool of competitors. Stockade and Saugerties draw from a different group, although some of our members may want to compete at these shows.
- The Schooling show is attractive to Western Dressage riders and to riders who are new to the sport or with inexperienced horses.
- The Recognized show is attractive to those who are interested in qualifying for Regional Championships, Medals, etc.

Most importantly, we need to decide on dates, register the show with USEF and USDF, and contract with judges.

New Business:

Gale Wolfe requested that CDCT support her application for funding for her to attend the USDF Convention so she can receive her Gold Medal. Kathy moved, Dinah seconded. 8 in favor, 2 abstentions.

Dave Thind Clinic: Kathy Thode is working with Dave to put together a clinic July 17-18. On Tuesday late afternoon there will be a 2.5-3 hour session on Body Awareness and Mechanics at Jane Marie's place in Ithaca.

Donna moved, Bettina seconded the motion that the Club subsidize this event so participants will pay only $25/person.

Next meeting: mid-August, hopefully a dish-to-pass at a state park. Details to follow.

REGION 8 NEWS

Summer is finally here! Everyone is busy with showing and vacations!

We are only weeks away from the North American Junior/Young Rider Championships which are being held in HITS in Saugerties, NY, July 18-22, 2017. Jen Dillon, our Regional Coordinator, and Jane Karol, our Chef d'equipe, have been busy getting the entries done and in to the FEI. The top four riders in each division will be members of the team. If a rider/horse is unable to compete, the next ranked rider/horse is allowed to step in. As it is not official yet who will be on the teams, I will not put them in this newsletter but watch for the announcement from USDF! We have strong teams this year!

NEDA Fall Festival opens on July 31st. There is a Championship window for the first six days. What this means is that if you are entering the Regional Championships (FYI-you don't have to be qualified at the point of putting your entry in!) and get your entry in within these first six days you will not be denied any open classes. After this window, you will be guaranteed your championship class if your entry is RECEIVED by closing date, Aug 28th, but you may be put on the waitlist for open classes. I hope this helps with the explanation of the championship window a bit better!

Also NEDA always needs volunteers for the show. Please contact Helen VanDerVoort, vandeh@aol.com. They need everything from scribes to runners, and I know they put you up in a hotel and feed you well!! Of course, if you are Champion and/or Reserve Champion in the Regional Championship or you have reached a certain score (information on the USDF Website) AND you have declared, you will be invited to the US Dressage Finals in Lexington, KY, November 9-12, 2017. This is a head to head competition with the other regional champions. I am hoping for a big showing from Region 8 again.

DECLARATIONS are open now for the US Dressage Finals. Please remember you will have to declare that you are willing to go to the 'finals' if invited. This declaration must be done by the day before our Regional Championships start or September 20, 2017. The USDF website will have more information. By declaring, you are only saying you would consider going, and it costs nothing to declare. If you are one of the invited, you will need to commit by nominating and pay the non-refundable class fee within 72 hours after the NEDA Fall Festival.

Next month is Lendon's Youth Festival which is a great event for the kids. This event features the USDF youth team competition. This is a most incredible sight to see, where 40 plus teams parade into the main Grand Prix arena at HITS in Saugerties. They are all wearing team shirts, hats, and whatever else they created. It actually takes your breath away! If you have time to volunteer please contact Bonnie, bonniestetson@att.net, as I know she can use scribes.

Attention GMOs: newsletter, website, photography, and volunteer of the year nominations close August 30th. So before your summer gets under way, please submit them! It is a great way to get recognition for your GMO or an outstanding volunteer plus for Region 8! Here is the link with all the information...<https://www.usdf.org/awards/service/gmo.asp>

Remember we will hold our next regional meeting on October 8, 2017, noon, at the Publick House in Sturbridge, MA. We do like meeting face to face and I hope you can spare the time to make it. However, we have been given the opportunity to use the NEDA conference hub and number for those of you too far away, so that you can call in. So no excuses! But you will miss the great food at Publick House and the great company!

See you on the Centerline...
