Volunteer Power (Adapted from an article by Lisa Schmidt, USDF Region 1 Director)

I am a volunteer and proud of it. Lisa goes on to say that the USDF Executive Board, committee members, GMO presidents and board members are all volunteers. The dictionary definition of a volunteer is “a person who freely offers to take part in an enterprise or undertake a task”. Volunteering can take time away from your family and your riding. Many groups offer a reward or recognition of volunteers but for the most part, the reward volunteers receive is the satisfaction of knowing that they gave their time to help further our sport and for the love of our horses. Volunteers are the backbone of our sport. Our club and our shows would not exist without the valuable contributions of our members and volunteers. There are no small roles to fill – every little bit helps. Connie O’Hearn wanted to make sure that everyone who helped out at the June show received a special thank you.

Can you find time to volunteer at our next event? It is a great way to learn and foster relationships. When you are at events, please be sure to thank the volunteers! Come to one of our club meetings (we always chose a place with good food and wine) and get to know us.
