Collected Notes

July 2022

From CDCTC's Co-President:

Thank you to all the volunteers, competitors, grooms, parents, trainers, shippers, supporters, and our judge for making our 2022 CDCT Keep-in' It Casual Show such a huge success! We had a full day of showing and even managed some last minute scheduling changes after a trailer with four horses was late with a flat tire. Competitors ranged from a nine year old at her very first show up through seasoned riders competing at First Level, from the smallest pony to large warm-bloods. As always, Asbury Equestrian Center was the perfect, welcoming venue and our show ran smoothly and efficiently. A huge shoutout to Tina and Norm for all of their hard work in organizing and running the show and to Karen for handling entries and scheduling. We even made a profit! Can't wait till next year's show!

The completion of our casual show means the shift to our CDCT Dressage in Wine Country recognized shows! This year we have hired a professional team for manager and secretary that will be handling the prize list, scheduling, and running of the show. This means that our club members can have more time to compete and volunteer. Our prize list will be released and ready to accept entries very shortly. We have our judges, TD, vets, farrier, and EMT all hired. We are still accepting Special Awards - please contact Jane-Marie with your interest. We are also looking for Elite Sponsors - please contact Kathy Thode if you are interested in donating or helping look for sponsors.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Monthly meeting: July 21, 6 pm, Fallen Tree Center, 128 Muriel Street Ithaca, NY 14850. Please bring a vegetarian dish to pass.

Dressage in Wine Country I & II: August 27 & 28. Contact Jane-Marie Law for more information.

REMEMBER!

USEF Safesport refresher is required for all show officials, as well as competitors. Please complete or update your training at the USDF's Safesport training site.

Big news for our small club! We purchased a used enclosed cargo trailer so that our full size dressage arena, our chain arena, ribbons, swag, banners, and everything else the club owns can all live in one place! After discussions at two meetings, a change in plans, and extensive searching by Norm, we purchased a trailer and picked it up. Once registration and inspection are done, we will be looking into adding our logo to the sides and then moving all of our stuff in in an organized fashion. An enclosed cargo trailer means everything we always search for can all be in one place that anyone with a hitch can pick up and take to events. Personally, I am super excited to reclaim my spare bedroom which is full of ribbons, bags, wine glasses, office supplies, and more.

The unmounted biomechanics clinic with Michelle LaBarre at the beginning of the month was a giant success. Thank you so much to Carol Morris for organizing, Colleen for letting us have it at Healing Rein, and of course to Michelle for such fabulous instruction. We had over 12 participants, yummy food, delicious Hazlitt wine and bubbly, and there were lots of aha moments, laughter, and learning. I suspect that there was an increase in weighted hula hoops sales the next day as well…if you know, you know. We hope to host more fun, educational events like this in the future!

In closing, I would like to remind our membership that this is a voting year and there will be board member positions opening up. If you are interested in serving, please let me know and I will add you on to the list. Voting takes place during our November meeting which also happens to be our Awards Gala. Hope to see you all at our July meeting!

Ride all the ponies and jump all the things,

Shannon
