

COLLECTED NOTES

SEPTEMBER 2021

FROM CDCTC'S CO-PRESIDENT:

And just like that, Dressage in Wine Country 2021 is a wrap! Our biggest recognized show yet, at least since I've been show secretarying. We had 80 entries total (two scratched prior to scheduling) and my initial ride time schedule included 131 rides on Saturday and 108 on Sunday - talk about a marathon!

It goes without saying that this event takes an army of people to pull off and I am so thankful to all of our show committee, show staff, volunteers, and competitors that helped make our weekend so successful. Our wonderful judges and TD were awesome, answering questions, going with the flow, and keeping us on schedule for some long days of showing. There were a lot of happy people who cheered each other on, kept saying, "there are more awards?!", did happy dances for their scores, and someone even brought us chocolate! I hope if nothing else that our shows are remembered for being super fun and welcoming.

I will admit that I am late on this month's newsletter article because my brain is still trying to catch up from recognized show madness. Horse show secretary hangover is real. I am very grateful to Anita Jaffe for helping me submit all scores and fees (except Sunday's USEF fees) on Sunday at the end of the show. I think at this point I have tied up almost all the loose ends! I am also working on inventorying all the show supplies and creating a shared Google Sheets document (continued)

UPCOMING EVENTS

Monthly meeting: September 9th, 6PM at Cass Park. We will shoot for one of the two pavilions located near the rink end of The Children's Garden. Look for Norm's lemon yellow Honda Fit with a license plate holder that says "My Other Car is a Dressage Horse" and you will be in the right place!

where we can all see what's there. Hopefully that helps in the future rather than tracking stuff down.

In early October, CDCT will be hosting a Riding The Levels Symposium with Lisa El-Ramey at Easy Gait Farm in Cincinnatus, NY. This was rescheduled from last year due to COVID. Lisa will talk us through what judges look for and give riders feedback on their tests from Training all the way through FEI levels. There are sign up forms on our website and Facebook with more information so definitely check that out. It should be a fun weekend and great learning experience - auditors welcome!

We will discuss dates and locations for Dressage in Wine Country 2022 at our September meeting as well as give a full debriefing. We have 60 days from August 29th to renew our competitions for next year with USEF. Of course, hiring judges, a TD, and all the other bits and bobs starts right back up for next year. Show planning is a wheel that never ends! Hope to see you all at the meeting and have a constructive discussion.

Ride all the ponies and jump all the things,

Shannon
